During the Maintenance Leadership Academy, participants work on tabletop exercises to analyze traffic safety in work zones.

Collaboration toward Comprehensive Maintenance Leadership Training

Have you thought about collaborating with other transportation agencies to meet your workforce development needs? Discover the benefits of NHI's Maintenance Leadership Academy (MLA) and learn about collaborative hosting options from NHI's recent article in Public Roads, FHWA's bimonthly magazine.

Tips for Finding Partners

- Talk to neighboring states that share similar challenges, geography, or weather.
- Invite neighboring states that use different processes or approaches.
- Invite regional AASHTO peers.
- Ask NHI to hold seats for neighboring states.
