JULY TRAINING SESSIONS
Interested in taking an NHI training course?
There are more than 10 NHI courses currently scheduled across the country in the remainder of July. Visit the NHI Web site to see a list of this month’s training sessions.

If you can’t make it to any of NHI’s in-person, Instructor-led trainings, you can always take a self-paced, Web-based training (WBT). NHI now offers more than 140 WBTs. Select this link to see a complete list of NHI’s WBTs.

Course Spotlight: 139009 Engaging the Private Sector in Freight Planning

Engaging the Private Sector in Freight Planning is a one-day workshop intended to provide techniques and strategies to help practitioners establish and strengthen relationships with the private sector. It is designed for practitioners addressing freight issues at metropolitan planning organizations (MPOs), State departments of transportation, local governments, and economic development agencies.

Building knowledge of both private sector business needs and the public sector transportation planning process supports the effective integration of freight into many statewide and metropolitan transportation plans and investment decisions. Developing and sustaining relationships, either formally or informally, with key
Engaging the Private Sector in Freight Planning

Private sector stakeholders is critical to effective freight transportation planning. Upon completion of this workshop participants will be able to develop an action plan that will engage freight stakeholders in their agencies’ planning processes.
